

Since enactment of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law my private telephone service is no longer used as someone else's business phone requiring me and my Wife to answer unwanted calls. I do not want past business's to contact me by phone, they allready send enough junk mailings out to get their advertising to the public. Thank you for your help, Rod V.